The KACC approached the senior artists about doing a senior showcase to promote their art as many are pursuing a college education in art.
- The next gallery showing will begin August 11, 2023 at 5:30pm. The gallery is booked through October, and they will need more artists for November and moving forward. Commissioner Thornhill requests that the commission continue to send artist suggestions to her to fill gallery slots.
- Chairperson Watkins states that the commission would like to have somewhere around twenty (20) framed portraits of art from around town to stay in storage in case there is a gap in the gallery. She suggests buying inexpensive frames, and taking and printing the pictures themselves.

B. CultureFest Update

- They aim to have the owls on display for the month of November.

G. Storybook Walk Status

- The commission is waiting for staff member, Tanyel Aviles, to return to order the sign frames/posts for the storybook walk. The local library will purchase the books, choose the books, the layout and the preparation of the pages.

- Mr. Simmons asks where the storybook walk will be located.
- Commissioner Watkins states that it will follow the paths in Depot Park.
- Mr. Simmons states that City Staff has had meetings regarding Depot Park. He states that the City is concerned with what will go in Depot Park because of the enormous investment into the park. The City has stated they don't want various things in the park that don't match the theme or design.
- Chairperson Watkins states that she has done a proposal for the Director of Parks and Recreation, and the director was agreeable to the project.
